

Wine and walk holidays

CAMINO Ways, the walking and cycling holiday specialists, are now offering a wine and walking experience from €320pp, writes Trish Whelan. Two options are offered: Walk the whole French Way from St Jean Pied de Port to Santiago (780km and 35 nights) from €2,835pp or walk a section of the route for a week on the Camino from €320pp.

The French Way is the most popular of all the routes to Santiago. Besides the stunning views you will admire along the way, the wine experience is also unforgettable as you will cross several different vineyards, from St Jean Pied de Port to Santiago.

You will also meet many other pilgrims as you cross the route. During the trek from St Jean Pied de Port to Pamplona, you pass through Pays Basque and the Irouleguy wine region.
