

Publication: The Cork News
 Date: Thursday, June 07, 2012
 Page: 75
 Extract: 1 of 1
 Circulation: 60.000
 Author:
 Headline: Explore the French countryside on foot

Explore the French countryside on foot

Take a break away from the usual sun, sea and sand and venture into the French countryside with a walking holiday from Camino Ways. Country Cottage Tours with Camino Ways allow travellers to experience nature and local culture, as well as authentic accommodation choices. With this tour, travellers will walk the last section of the French Way, the most popular pilgrimage route between Sarria and Santiago de Compostela. Split into five walking days and six nights, the walk is roughly 100km and passers sights such as the unique church of Melide, the Pope's monument in Monte do Gozo and the holy city of Santiago de Compostela. During the trip, travellers will stay in beautiful country lodges, as opposed to classic hotels. Country Cottages tours start at just €530pp (flights not included). Visit caminoways.com or call 01 525 28 86.

