

Travel NEWS

■ WHEN it comes to walking the Camino de Santiago, Irish pilgrims are right up there, with almost 4,000 of us having walked the route last year. That's the news from specialists Camino Ways (caminoways.com; 01 5252886). Germans top the international poll with 15,000 walkers last year, followed by the Italians, Portuguese, French, Americans and Irish ourselves. (We are ahead of the UK, Holland, Canada and Korea) Popularised by Martin Sheen's film The Way, the Camino suits all types of walkers.
