The Cammino di Francesco, also called Via Francigena di San Francesco or Saint Francis Way, follows a spiritual route inspired by St Francis of Assisi and has been walked by pilgrims to Rome over centuries.

Divided in four sections, the trail starts in the stunning city of Florence and crosses lush Umbria on its way to Rome and the Vatican, passing many important Franciscan sites such as the Santuario de La Verna, the breathtaking Sanctuary of Poggio Bustone and Assisi and the Rieti Valley, also called the Sacred Valley, with its surrounding hills and mountains.

Other highlights of the Cammino di Francesco include spectacular natural wonders such as the Marmore Waterfalls and the gorgeous town of Gubbio.
