

TAKE THE CAMINO WAY

The Camino Primitivo, or the original way, is the oldest Camino route and was first followed by Alfonso II, the King of Asturias in the ninth century. Known as one of the more challenging of the Camino routes, the pay off is in the breath taking scenery and the amazing historical sites that you'll see along the way. Your six-night walk will begin in the gorgeous city of Lugo, which is also a UNESCO World Heritage Site. You can enjoy a six-night walk from just €599pps (excluding flights and insurance). Accommodation is on a half-board basis. Book two months in advance and you'll also receive a five per cent early booking discount.

For more information call 01 525 2886 or log on to www.caminoways.com