Free talk on Camino walk

The Great Outdoors on Eglinton Street will hold a free talk on everything you need to know ahead of walking the Camino de Santiago. The talk, given by CaminoWays will take place on Thursday, July 24 at 6:30pm in store.

The Camino de Santiago in northern Spain and southern France is one of the world's best walking experiences and has seen a marked increase in the number of Irish people travelling to take part in this walking adventure.

GUH's Art Exhibition

An exhibition titled An + Aisthe-sis by Karen Conway is on display on the Arts Corridor at University Hospital Galway this week as part of the Galway International Arts Festival.

The exhibition is based on work inspired by the Department of Anaesthesia archive at University Hospital Galway. Last summer, Karen spent four months working from an old disused surgery in Galway which she used as studio space developing this research work through painting and drawing.

Americans with blas

Nineteen Canadian and seven American Irish language learners were presented with awards at Acadamh na hOllscolaíochta Gaeilge in An Cheathrú Rua in the Galway Gaeltacht at the weekend.

Awards were also presented to six Irish Language Instructors selected by the Ireland Canada University Foundation (ICUF) to teach Irish at a range of locations across Canada for the academic year 2014-15. These awards are the result of ongoing collaboration the Department of Arts, Heritage and the Gaeltacht has developed with ICUF and the Ireland-United States [Fulbright] Commission for Educational Exchange.
