

Tuesday, September 16, 2014

Tuscany by foot with FrancigenaWays.com

Discover the wonders of Tuscany by foot with FrancigenaWays.com, the walking holiday specialists, on the Via Francigena, the Camino to Rome.

Prices start from €679pps for a 7-day trip. Just like the Camino de Santiago, the Via Francigena is an ancient pilgrimage route followed by walkers from across Europe for centuries and is divided into sections. This long-distance trail starts in Canterbury Cathedral and crosses France, Switzerland and Italy on its way to Rome.

A selection of current deals include:

* Lucca to Siena - the lively walled city of Lucca, the medieval atmosphere of Siena and many other sites en route; 7 nights in their hand-picked accommodation; from €789pps in high season and from €699pps in low season. More info:

<http://francigenaways.com/ways/via-francigena/via-francigena-section-14>

* Tuscany Guided Tour - walk from San Miniato to Siena as part of their Via Francigena guided tour, perfect for solo travellers. Set departures for 2015 are 9 May and 26 September 2015. Price from €790pps. More info: <http://francigenaways.com/our-services/via-francigena-guided-tours>

Price includes: Standard packages include half-board accommodation, luggage transfers from hotel to hotel and holiday pack with practical information. They do not include flights or insurance.

Request a free quote or book by logging onto Tuscany by foot with FrancigenaWays.com, or call 353 (0) 1-525 2886.