

From home-grown adventures to overseas hikes, there's plenty to capture the imagination on the outdoor calendar over the coming weeks

Mourne Way Marathon, June 6

One of Ireland's prominent off-road races, this event through the stunning Mourne Mountains in Co Down offers six options - ultra (84km), marathon (42km), half marathon (21km), 10km, 5km and 26-mile challenge walk. All routes are fully waymarked and traverse the foothills of the mountains. 26extreme.com

Mourne Way Marathon, June 6

Westport Sprint Triathlon, June 6

Part of the national series for 2015, this sprint triathlon involves a 750m swim from the quay in Co Mayo's Westport, a 20km bike out along the coast road to Croagh Patrick and back, and a 5km run through the closed roads and scenic grounds of Westport House. Post-race showers and hot food will be available after the race. westporttriclub.ie

Camino talk, June 8

Huge numbers of Irish people walk the Camino de Santiago every year. If you're keen to do it too, and would like to know more, check out this free talk by Camino-ways.com taking place at 53 Degrees North, Carrickmines, at 7pm. The focus will be on the history and different routes to Santiago de Compostela. But it will also look at the lesser-known Via Francigena, the Camino to Rome, which crosses Europe from Canterbury to Rome. This event is free, but you must book your place.

bit.ly/1Hwj4xD

Send details and images of your events to editor@outsider.ie