

CAMINO CAMEO

IF WALKING Spain's iconic Camino de Santiago is on your bucket list ambition, get a taste of the action at the CaminoWays.com trek festival in Wicklow.

To mark the feast of St James, the patron saint of Santiago de Compostela, the specialist travel company is inviting hikers of all abilities for a ramble around Laragh on July 25.

There are three trails, one suitable for families and an 8km and 13km option for more experienced trekkers.

Tickets cost €20 for adults and €40 for families, and there'll be prize draws and competitions throughout the day, as well as a giant paella to wolf down afterwards.
